

High Desert Meeting Minutes
February 08, 2005

February's High Desert Rovers meeting was held at Quarters on Wyoming. Robert Dassler, President started the meeting by requesting approval of January's meeting minutes. Minutes approved.

Treasurer's Report – Christine Grabiell stated that the balance is $ 701.25, with receipt of new member dues and payment of High Desert Rover's membership fee to the Southwest 4Wheel Drive Club of $ 212. This includes a membership for the club and individual family membership for High Desert Rover club members to the SW4Wheel Drive Club. If you are not receiving your newsletter from them, please contact Christine.

Old Business –

Tim Rainwater updated members on club events that are scheduled for February and also Moab. The time schedule for the Moab trip in March will need to be modified due the Easter Jeep Safari taking place at the same time as our planed trip.

February 23 – 26 event to the Chili Challenge has been canceled due to lack of participation. Tim proposed a day trip this weekend in the Jemez area. By a show of hands, the day trip will be scheduled for Sunday, meet at the Chevron station on the corner of 550 and 528 at 8:30am.

Tim stated that he would like to do a trip to Choke Cherry Canyon in Farmington, but the trails may be too difficult for stock vehicles. Tim will investigate more. He also proposed a trip to Chaco Canyon and also in the Pecos area.

Tim's proposed amendments to the calendar:

Las Cruces tip the weekend of March 18 – 20.

West Mesa outing on April 17.

Moab – long weekend, date to be announced.

Pagosa Springs, Colorado or Red River, New Mexico outing – weekend of June 16.

Leadville, Colorado for the National Land Rover Rally – July 27 – 30.

August trip to be announced.

Ouray, Colorado long weekend, September –date to be announced.

Tim would like to do some more exploring trips in the area. Tim will check the We Be Jeeping website for possible trail information. Rob will check with the SW 4Wheel Drive club for trail information as well.

New Business:

Suzanne Miller reported that she has software installed to take over the web site. She will check with Mike Robertson for website information and format.

Jackie has not received the disc with newsletter information and templates.

Christine proposed that meetings are held in the same place for consecutive months. Jackie will investigate possible locations. Next month's meeting will be held at Quarters on Wyoming again.

Meeting adjourned.
